animation quality and atmosphere immediately make a difference. Starting with Johnny and seeing Sandman in the first episode was quite surprising.Their two best things: Pacing and scene design. The scenes connect incredibly smoothly, and they've even added extra scenes and these have further enhanced the transitions. The town and environmental design are excellent. You really feel like you're living in the atmosphere. It immediately draws you in after the race starts. The animation peaks in some scenes. The horse scenes, in particular, are incredibly good. I'll say it clearly: This...

Mixed Feelings | Well-written 📝 | Preliminary (1/? eps)

Just putting first thoughts here. This somehow doesnt feel like Jojo and I dont think thats a bad thing. The part was very hyped up, so living up to the expectations will be hard. Anyway so far there is only one episode out and its really good. It sets up the race and a lot of interesting characters like Poco, which I cant wait to see more of. The race sequence was very cool and I quite enjoyed the episode.
The production was very well done. The horses moved fluidly and when there was animation it was very smooth and tastefull (extra true for the...

Not Recommended | Funny 😂 | Preliminary (1/? eps)

The part 7 adaption is similar to its previous part with lacklusting animation, storyboards and turn-based approach to battles. The story so far is not on par with previous parts like part 3 of Jojo which had the introduction of the classic "Stand" concept, etc. Instead SBR repeats the same formula and don't innovate much other than change settings and this time its a horse race. The music is okayish but nothing close to what part 5 and 4 soundtrack were, in terms of adaption its lacking a lot of the charm and details from the manga that were removed for a more budget friendly...
