It is difficult to understand how this anime is being overlooked among the other new entries this season. It has the same director as Witch Hat Atelier and stands on par with it.

The subject and setting are excellent. Rakugo is the art of Japanese storytelling. There are a handful of other anime with the same subject, but each gives its own take and its own premise. Akane-banashi features Akane who falls in love with rakugo for her own reasons.

All the stories of Rakugo by themselves are already very good to watch, since they are meant to be professional performances. However, this anime added too many effects and narration while playing the performance, which made it highly distracting and confusing to watch, and the Rakugo was less enjoyable as a result. For this reason, I would recommend watching
